LITURGICAL ART NOTES

Third Sunday of Easter

Fish and fishing are an integral part of Jesus' life and teaching and in John 21, after his Resurrection, Jesus feeds the apostles with fish that he has instructed them to catch. It is believed by Biblical scholars that, although not named specifically in the Bible, the fish that Jesus and his disciples ate was probably a species of Tilapia which is one of the main fish caught in the Sea of Galilee in Biblical times. On another occasion in Matthew's gospel, Jesus tells Peter that the first fish he catches will have a silver shekel in it which he can use to pay the Temple tax and it is because of this that Tilapia is known as St. Peter's Fish. Overfishing depleted the fish population in Galilee but it was restocked with 600,000 farmed Tilapia in 2013. Even today, pilgrims visiting Galilee from throughout the world can be served what is known as "St. Peter's Fish Lunch".

3rd Sunday of Easter

Sunday, May 1, 2022

8:00 am, 9:00 am and 10:45 am

The disciples make a big splash and eat breakfast with the risen Jesus. Wading in the water (remembering baptism) and eating with Jesus (celebrating holy communion) is our weekly encounter with the risen Christ. Jesus asks us again and again: Do you love me? And Jesus invites us, again and again, to follow him, bringing the Easter life to others.

*Indicates: Please stand

10:45 service will sing only the 1st and last verses of the hymns

PRELUDE

10:45 am

Christ Has Arisen, Alleluia

Vicky Lee Struss & Beth Huber, handbell duet

GATHERING The Holy Spirit calls us together as the people of God.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

CALL TO WORSHIP

Let us turn and return to God who is gracious, and runs to meet us.

Let us return to God with repentant hearts, trusting in God's mercy. Our hope is built on God's abundant love.

THANKSGIVING FOR BAPTISM

Alleluia! Christ is risen. Christ is risen indeed. Alleluia!

In the waters of baptism, we have passed over from death to life with Jesus Christ, and we are a new creation. For this saving mystery, and for this water, let us bless God, who was, who is, and who is to come.

We thank you, God, for your river of life, flowing freely from your throne: through the earth, through the city, through every living thing.

You rescued Noah and his family from the flood;

You opened wide the sea for the Israelites.

Now in these waters you flood us with mercy, and our sin is drowned forever.

You open the gate of righteousness and we pass safely through.

In Jesus Christ, you calm and trouble the waters. You nourish us and enclose us in safety.

You call us forth and send us out. In lush and barren places, you are with us.

You have become our salvation.

Now breathe upon this water and awaken your church once more.

Claim us again as your beloved and holy people.

Quench our thirst; cleanse our hearts; wipe away every tear.

To you, our Beginning and our End, our Shepherd and Lamb, be honor, glory, praise, and thanksgiving, now and forever. Amen.

*GREETING

The steadfast love of God, who created us, the life-giving love of Christ who redeemed us, and tender love the Holy Spirit who leads us back to God, be with you all. And also with you.

KYRIE

In peace, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mer - cy.

For the peace from above, and for our salvation, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mer - cy.

For the peace of the whole world, for the well-being of the church of God, and for the unity of all, let us pray to the Lord.

Lord, have mer - cy.

For this holy house, and for all who offer here their worship and praise, let us pray to the Lord. Lord, have mer - cy.

Help, save, comfort, and defend us, gra - cious Lord. A - men.

*PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us Pray... Eternal and all-merciful God, with all the angels and all the saints we laud your majesty and might. By the resurrection of your Son, show yourself to us and inspire us to follow Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

FIRST READING     Acts 9:1-6 [7-20]

Saul (later called Paul) was an ardent persecutor of all who followed the Way of Christ. This reading recounts the story of his transformation beginning with an encounter with Jesus Christ on the way to Damascus.

A reading from Acts:

Saul, still breathing threats and murder against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest and asked him for letters to the synagogues at Damascus, so that if he found any who belonged to the Way, men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem. Now as he was going along and approaching Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven flashed around him. He fell to the ground and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?" He asked, "Who are you, Lord?" The reply came, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. But get up and enter the city, and you will be told what you are to do." [The men who were traveling with him stood speechless because they heard the voice but saw no one. Saul got up from the ground, and though his eyes were open, he could see nothing; so they led him by the hand and brought him into Damascus. For three days he was without sight, and neither ate nor drank.

Now there was a disciple in Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias." He answered, "Here I am, Lord." The Lord said to him, "Get up and go to the street called Straight, and at the house of Judas look for a man of Tarsus named Saul. At this moment he is praying, and he has seen in a vision a man named Ananias come in and lay his hands on him so that he might regain his sight." But Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he has done to your saints in Jerusalem; and here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who invoke your name." But the Lord said to him, "Go, for he is an instrument whom I have chosen to bring my name before Gentiles and kings and before the people of Israel; I myself will show him how much he must suffer for the sake of my name." So Ananias went and entered the house. He laid his hands on Saul and said, "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, who appeared to you on your way here, has sent me so that you may regain your sight and be filled with the Holy Spirit." And immediately something like scales fell from his eyes, and his sight was restored. Then he got up and was baptized, and after taking some food, he regained his strength.

For several days he was with the disciples in Damascus, and immediately he began to proclaim Jesus in the synagogues, saying, "He is the Son of God."]

The word of the Lord.     Thanks be to God

PSALM 30 You have turned my wailing into dancing. (Ps. 30:11)

I will exalt you, O LORD, because you have lifted me up and have not let my enemies triumph over me.

O LORD my God, I cried out to you,
and you restored me to health.

You brought me up, O LORD, from the dead;
you restored my life as I was going down to the grave.

Sing praise to the LORD, all you faithful;
give thanks in holy remembrance.

God's wrath is short; God's favor lasts a lifetime.

Weeping spends the night, but joy comes in the morning.

While I felt secure, I said,
"I shall never be disturbed.

You, LORD, with your favor, made me as strong as the mountains."
Then you hid your face, and I was filled with fear.

I cried to you, O LORD;
I pleaded with my Lord, saying,

"What profit is there in my blood, if I go down to the pit?
Will the dust praise you or declare your faithfulness?

Hear, O LORD, and have mercy upon me;
O LORD, be my helper."

You have turned my wailing into dancing;
you have put off my sackcloth and clothed me with joy.

Therefore my heart sings to you without ceasing;
O LORD my God, I will give you thanks forever.

SECOND READING Revelation 5:11-14

The vision of John recorded in Revelation offers a glimpse of cosmic worship around the throne. At its center is "the Lamb who was slain."

A reading from Revelation:

Then I looked, and I heard the voice of many angels surrounding the throne and the living creatures and the elders; they numbered myriads of myriads and thousands of thousands, singing with full voice, "Worthy is the Lamb that was slaughtered to receive power and wealth and wisdom and might and honor and glory and blessing!"

Then I heard every creature in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and all that is in them, singing, "To the one seated on the throne and to the Lamb be blessing and honor and glory and might forever and ever!"

And the four living creatures said, "Amen!" And the elders fell down and worshiped.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God

* GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

Al - le - lu - ia. Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of e - ter - nal life. Al - le - lu - ia. Al - le - lu - ia.

* GOSPEL John 21:1-19

The risen Christ appears again to his disciples by the sea where they were first called. After echoes of the fishing and feeding miracles, he gives a final reminder of the cost of a disciple's love and obedience.

The holy gospel according to John. Glory to you, O Lord.

After [he appeared to his followers in Jerusalem,] Jesus showed himself again to the disciples by the Sea of Tiberias; and he showed himself in this way. Gathered there together were Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples. Simon Peter said to them, "I am going fishing." They said to him, "We will go with you." They went out and got into the boat, but that night they caught nothing.

Just after daybreak, Jesus stood on the beach; but the disciples did not know that it was Jesus. Jesus said to them, "Children, you have no fish, have you?" They answered him, "No." He said to them, "Cast the net to the right side of the boat, and you will find some." So they cast it, and now they were not able to haul it in because there were so many fish. That disciple whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It is the Lord!" When Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he put on some clothes, for he was naked, and jumped into the sea. But the other disciples came in the boat, dragging the net full of fish, for they were not far from the land, only about a hundred yards off.

When they had gone ashore, they saw a charcoal fire there, with fish on it, and bread. Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish that you have just caught." So Simon Peter went aboard and hauled the net ashore, full of large fish, a hundred fifty-three of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn. Jesus said to them, "Come and have breakfast." Now none of the disciples dared to ask him, "Who are you?" because they knew it was the Lord. Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and did the same with the fish. This was now the third time that Jesus appeared to the disciples after he was raised from the dead.

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs." A second time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Tend my sheep." He said to him the third time, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" And he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep. Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go.” (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, “Follow me.”

The gospel of the Lord.           Praise to you, O Christ.

TASK FORCE We're looking for interested people who would like to be a part of three upcoming task forces that will be expected to begin work beginning this summer. Each task force has a different focus so please consider the following descriptions before nominating yourself or someone else to make sure your gifts match. While it would be great to have as much participation as possible, to keep the work moving forward, each task force will be made up of approximately five people.

Worship Leadership- Coming back from a two-year hiatus, we have suspended some worship leadership responsibilities while adding others. This task force will work primarily over the summer to create the roles and responsibilities of each needed job for a Sunday morning worship and then culminate their work in a training gathering for all interested.

Youth Leadership- The pandemic has impacted families with children and youth the most. Churches in our area and across the United States are struggling to revitalize their ministries. We're going to take a first look at our youth to see in what ways we might be able to build up our programming in this needed time. While most of the work will probably happen over the summer, there may be some residual projects in the fall.

Communications- A tricky endeavor in this day and age but no less needed to be effective, this task force will ask the questions about how we communicate and what is expected of us in this day and age. While there will be expected changes throughout the course of this task force, the commitment is for a full year with work beginning in the summer.

Please speak to Pastor Kevin with any nominations or recommendations. All names will need to be submitted by Sunday, May 15.

WOMEN'S BREAKFAST: Women's Breakfast will meet on Tuesday, May 3 at 9:00am at Terra Rustica Restaurant, 550 N State Road, Briarcliff. To reserve a space call Lynda Nickelsen at 914-960-5855 or email at lyndanick@optonline.net. Come and bring a friend. Looking forward to seeing you.
